Employment Opportunity for Cambodian Nationals

The United States Agency for International Development (USAID) is seeking the best qualified applicant to fill the position of Project Management Specialist (Rule of Law), FSN-10 (Office of General Development-OGD).

Basic Function of Position:
Responsible for providing strategic direction, technical expertise, and project monitoring in the program element areas of constitutions, laws and legal systems, judicial independence, and justice system reform.

Qualifications Required:
- University degree in law or other related fields is required.
- A minimum of five (5) years in the field of law with the public or private sector. Prior experience in legal aid, legal practice, or legal sector reform in Cambodia is required.
- Strong written and oral proficiency in English is required. Native Speaker in Khmer is also required.
- A comprehensive knowledge of the concepts, principles, techniques, issues, and practices for promoting legal and judicial reform in Cambodia and knowledge of Cambodian law and legal sector.
- Ability to obtain, analyze, and evaluate a variety of data. Ability to establish and maintain contacts at all levels of the host government(s) and with stakeholders in the non-governmental arena in order to explain USAID's legal and judicial reform activities, policies, objectives and procedures..

All interested applicants meeting the minimum requirements must collect and complete the Employment Application Form (OF-174). The Form OF-174 is available at U.S. Embassy, #1, Street 96, Gate Service CAC, Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

All completed applications consisting of cover letter, Resumé/CV and Application Form OF-174 should be submitted in a sealed envelope to:

Executive Office
Attention: Jun Campo
U.S. Embassy - Gate Service CAC
#1, Street 96, Phnom Penh.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING APPLICATION:

Friday, August 17, 2007 at 5:00 PM
Only short-listed applicants will be contacted for the test.

USAID IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER